

Benefits of LOCUS for students

- Firsthand experience
 - Curriculum comes alive with direct exposure to local communities. It helps students develop as future social workers.
- International relations
 - Allows for relationships and knowledge exchange with other students, lecturers and professionals across countries.
- Career building
 - Experiences attained through LOCUS aid professional development.
 - Students participating in LOCUS encounter professionals that may become future references.
 - Engaging with the local community and field partners through LOCUS provides contact with potential future employers.